3 CD SET WITH EXTENSIVE LINER NOTES, SUPERB PACKAGING AND PHOTOS IN A 24 PAGE BOOKLET

In 1973, while still at high-school, Ed Kuepper formed The Saints. After 3 seminal albums The Saints split whilst in the UK in 1978. While Chris Bailey carried on using The Saints' banner as his own, Kuepper returned to Australia to form an even more progressive group, Laughing Clowns.

It was the Clowns, alongside The Birthday Party and The Go-Betweens that helped throw off Australia's cultural cringe in the '80s. They were original, a collision of guitar and brass that amazed and challenged audiences around the world.

The Clowns' legacy may be forgotten by most, but Hot Records now rectifies this with the release of Cruel, But Fair, a beautifully packaged 3-CD Set containing every Laughing Clowns recording with track by track notes by Ed Kuepper. These albums sound as fresh and exciting today as when first released and remind us how powerful innovative & wildly experimental rock 'n' roll can be.

After the demise of Laughing Clowns in 1985, Kuepper has gone on to enjoy a fruitful solo career, but more on that in a month or two ...

HONEY STEEL'S GOLD 2000 RE-ISSUE

HOT1036-R CD 5035135103697 £10

This honeyed, steely, golden matrix of acousto-electric splendour was companion to The Aints' Ascension and the extension to the previous Today Wonder. All were recorded and released within a few months of each other - and sound so vastly different. Featuring the hook-laden The Way I Made You Feel and one of Ed's all-time greats Everything I've Got Belongs To You this album became the most successful of Ed's career at the time and was the first-ever Independent album to debut in Australia's notoriously conservative Top 50, hovering there for 12 weeks, peaking at #28. This 2000 Re-issue features 7 bonus tracks.
